

FIRST CLASS DAY

Kamehameha Girls School Sends Forth Graduates.

Interesting Exercises of Yesterday Afternoon—Most Creditable Showing.

The first class to graduate from the Kamehameha School for Girls entertained their friends yesterday afternoon with the exercises usual on such an occasion, but in such a style and so pleasantly that the occasion will long be remembered by those present. The day was auspicious, "the earth was in tune," the air balmy and the tropic clouds furnished "just the loveliest" setting while the amphitheater of mountains and ocean formed such a view of land and sea as one would have to travel to find equals in any clime.

The class, in their gowns of fleecy, immaculate white, not the black robes of mediæval scholarship, occupied the chairs immediately in front of the platform. The stripes and cross of the Hawaiian flag furnished just the bit of bright color to delight the eyes, as it waved over the group and furnished the drapery for the portiere.

The singing was very artistic, just the touch of delicacy in tone and modulation that Miss Clymer has such a genius in impressing on the mind and ear of the listener. The class is fortunate in having sweet voices with a wide range of tone. The class song, composed by Miss Clymer, both words and music, was strikingly befitting the occasion.

CLASS SONG.
Another year has swiftly flown
And brought us on its way
Of earnest toil, of life and love,
A new commencement day.
Behind the childhood's joys,
Youth's careless mirth and glee;
Before life's future strange
And full of mystery.

O heart, O soul, why thus cast down,
Disquieted art thou?
Hope thou in God, whose light alone
Makes radiant the brow;
His arm has us upheld,
His presence all unseen,
Unfelt, but ever near.
Our sword and shield has been
His love will never forsake
The hearts that on him rest.
In life or death with joy
Are they supremely blest.

Now while we wait a moment yet,
An undivided hand,
Sing we the song to hope most dear
Of that eternal land
Where royal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through
In God's most holy sight.
Farewell! Farewell!

The young ladies who essayed the parts of historian and of prophet, told as much truth as talmestones and fortune tellers are supposed to communicate, just enough of truth to come pretty close to the nerves, as the point of a needle to the point of the finger, and the winning showed that the wit was as sharp as it was bright. The tree was doubly blessed in song and carefully planned in soil that looked as if any Ponce de Leon ought to grow in such surroundings. Refreshments were served by the junior class in cute little cups, with the loveliest aprons, worn as effectively as a Spanish lady's mantilla. For style and fitness, it would be a difficult matter to produce class-day exercises of a higher order of merit than these with which Miss Pope introduced into Hawaiian society this first graduating class.

Following was the program:
Chorus—My Native Home—Lysberg
Class History—Helen Kibalehu
Chorus—Fly with Me—Mendelsohn
Class Property—Kedzie Kikawa
Chorus—Barcarole—Brahms
Poem—Introduction to Sir Lancelot
Miriam Hale
Chorus—Bless the Tree—G. F. Root
Planting of the Tree
Chorus—The Class Tree—G. F. Root
Class Song—K. G. S. Clynner

SALE OF THE HAWAIIAN HOTEL PREMISES, HONOLULU, H. I.

On Wednesday, July 28, 1897, at 12 o'clock noon, at the front entrance of the Executive Building, Honolulu, will be sold at Public Auction the Hawaiian Hotel Premises at Honolulu.

These premises are centrally located in the city, in the center of the block bounded by and with entrance drives from Hotel, Richards, Beretania and Alakea streets, and the grounds contain an area of 17-10 acres.

The buildings consist of the Hotel proper, of two stories and basement, built of brick and concrete, with broad verandas at front and rear of each story.

The main building covers an area of 10,800 sq. feet, with Lanai or wing addition on one side, 40x24 feet, and wooden addition on opposite wing for kitchen, 60x18 feet.

There are also four cottages on the premises, with ample provision for bath rooms and closets.

The main building contains a spacious parlor, public and private dining rooms, large billiard hall and bar room and forty sleeping rooms. The cottages contain about twenty additional sleeping rooms.

A water tank with capacity of 10,000 gallons is placed on a tower at an elevation sufficient to give a good water pressure in second story of the main building. This tank is supplied from an artesian well on adjoining premises, owned by Dr. J. S. McGrew.

The buildings and grounds are thoroughly lighted with electric light.

Plans of the buildings and grounds can be seen at the office of the Minister of the Interior.

Terms of sale are cash in United States gold coin.
